

Academy Award Winner Does Voice-Over For All The Losing Actors' Parts

Jimmy Kimmel interviews the winner for Best Actor (Gary Oldman). They talk about how impressive the competition was and Kimmel shows clips of all the other nominated performances, But Oldman does nasty and mocking voice-overs for the losing actors as the clips run, dubbing their lines with things like "Look at me, I'm acting so hard I'm sweating.", "This is boring, I wonder if my agent has heard back about that superhero role so I can make some real money.", "Oh, I'll never beat Gary Oldman. He's the best.", "I'm going to keep this toupee I'm wearing.", "For the love of God, talk faster so I can get to the buffet table before John Goodman does."
