

Bobbing For (Gets named after the celeb - Adeles, Goslings, Afflecks, Robins, Bobbies)

Like Bobbing For Apples. Use plastic floating apples with stems that have the likeness of the celebrity's face on them in a wading pool. Each apple has something inside it (a question for the celeb, an annoying task they have to perform like eating crackers before they dunk again, etc.). One apple-head has the guest's movie/TV show/CD to be plugged. David Hasselhoff is in lifeguard gear sitting with his feet in the wading pool. He revs up a leaf-blower to move the water around, which gets them wetter and also makes it harder to get an apple-head. They have 20 seconds to get an apple-head per round. The winner is the first one to get 3 apple-heads.
